THE BIBLICAL FEAST OF

PURIM

A STORY OF DIVINE PROTECTION

GOD TURNS EVIL INTO GOOD

ESTHER 9:22 (KJV)

As the days wherein the Jews rested from their enemies, and the month which was turned unto them from sorrow to joy, and from mourning to a good day...

SAME GOD THEN, SAME GOD NOW.

FOR SUCH A TIME AS THIS. ESTHER 4:14 (KJV)

WHAT IS PURIM?

Purim commemorates how God delivered the Jewish people from Haman's plot to destroy them during the time of Queen Esther. Although God's name is not mentioned in the book, His hand is seen working behind the scenes to turn a plan of evil into a victory for His people.

Many people of the land became Jews; for the fear of the Jews fell upon them. ESTHER 8:17 (KJV)

HOW TO CELEBRATE PURIM (ESTHER 9:20–32)

1. READ THE BOOK OF ESTHER
   Read the entire Book of Esther (usually at night and again in the morning).
2. GIVE GIFTS (MISHLOACH MANOT)
   Send portions of food or small gifts to friends and family. Esther 9:22 (KJV)
3. GIVE TO THE POOR (MATANOT L'EVYONIM)
   Give charity to at least two people in need. Esther 9:22 (KJV)
4. ENJOY A FESTIVE MEAL
   Have a joyful meal with family and friends. Esther 9:22 (KJV)
5. REJOICE AND GIVE THANKS
   Celebrate with joy, music, and gratitude for God's deliverance. Esther 9:26–28 (KJV)

HOW TO CELEBRATE

Purim is one of the most FUN Bible celebrations to enjoy with your kids!

We dress up like Queen Esther, King Ahasuerus, princesses and other characters from the story, fill the table with candy and sweet treats, and make the whole day feel like a celebration.

The kids have a blast—but they're also learning an incredible Bible story about courage, faith, and how God can use ordinary people to accomplish extraordinary things.

PURIM REMINDS US

- God sees His people.
- God is always working, even when we don't see Him.
- He can turn situations of great evil into great good.
- We are called to stand for truth and righteousness.
- It is a time to rejoice, give thanks, and be generous to others.

"The joy of the LORD is your strength."
NEHEMIAH 8:10 (KJV)

REMEMBER
REJOICE
GIVE THANKS

GOD IS FAITHFUL YESTERDAY, TODAY AND FOREVER!
